

RYCO FILTERS

FITTING INSTRUCTIONS FOR RYCO CABIN FILTER RCA313P.

MAZDA TRIBUTE 6Z, 8Z, CU, YU06 & YU08

Also fits: FORD Escape BA, ZA, ZB & ZC

The cabin air filter is located below the engine cowl plastic trim on the passenger side of the vehicle. Remove the 4 screw caps and screws and open the bonnet.

Remove the 4 plastic clips holding the bottom of the plastic trim. Now pull the trim out. The cabin filter housing lid will be visible at this point, it is secured by two plastic clips. Remove clips and pull out the lid.

Some vehicles will not have had a cabin air filter installed new from the factory, however the housing is there to accommodate a cabin air filter. Make sure the housing is cleaned properly and insert the new Ryco cabin air filter. To fit, slide the filter in making sure the locating tabs at the rear of the filter frame locate inside the rear tabs of the housing and press the filter down until it clicks in the two front tabs.

Refit all components in reverse order.
